

The Albany Club

Where Canada's Conservatives Connect

Educational Workshop Series

Coming in the fall, the Albany Club will be hosting 'lunch and learn' workshops covering various fields and areas of interest.

Our first workshop will be hosted by Albany Club member Megan McElwain, who is the head of & Co. – a marketing and advertising agency in downtown Toronto.

Megan will teach you the basics of video production and show you how to turn your smartphone into a DIY film kit. By 2018, video will account for 80% of all consumer internet traffic. Take the first step in telling your story!
