RECIPROCAL CLUBS TO VISIT...

The 2018 CPC Convention is in Halifax this year. While there, plan to visit The Halifax Club.

The Halifax Club offers its members and their guests fine and casual dining options and a variety of social activities. It is also a place where professionals can arrange business meetings and personal functions with respect to convenience and privacy.

Planning a trip to Europe over the summer?

St. James Hotel and Club, just moments away from Buckingham Palace in the heart of Mayfair offers guests a truly royal experience. Whether perusing the shops on Bond street, strolling the theaters of the West End, or visiting the Palace of Westminster, the St. James Hotel and Club provides a repose after a long day across the pond.

Visiting Australia?

The Western Australian Club in Perth, Australia offers a modern atmosphere with first-class service. This private club offers an oasis down under to facilitate business and social interactions. Exceptional service will ensure you enjoy your visit.

Staying closer to home?

Less than a couple hours out of Toronto, The Barrie Country Club and offers Albany Club members a premium golf experience. With up to 7004 yards across 18 holes, this championship course presents an invigorating challenge with relaxing scenery. Off the course, the clubhouse offers all the amenities expected at a private club while showcasing the spectacular view.

Toronto close?

The Royal Canadian Yacht Club was founded in Toronto in 1852 to serve both as a recreational yachting club and, in the British tradition, as an unofficial auxiliary of the Royal Navy in the defence of the waters of Lake Ontario.

Albany Club members can enjoy the RCYC during the month of August.
