WHO ARE WE?

Established in 1882, the Albany Club today is the premier private club for Canadian conservatives and business leaders. With its elegant interior and timeless atmosphere, the Club is a historic jewel in the heart of downtown Toronto. Our 800 members come from diverse industries and bring their unique strengths to create a vibrant environment. The Club's legacy continues to flourish today, with more than a third of members under 35 years old.

SOME NOTABLE EVENTS:

- Sir John A. Macdonald Black Tie Dinner
- Pitt Society Black Tie Dinner & BBQs on the Rooftop Patio (for members under 35)
- Political & Author Series Receptions (new events every month)
- Blue Jays Lunch & Game with Private Box (with Mark Shapiro, President & CEO)
- Spring and Christmas 'Walk Around' Luncheons (400+ guests)
